

Critical Paper (5 pages)

Choose one aspect of the text that interested you. Consider again, something craft-related, such as structure, imagery, symbolism, character, or a literary device. How does the author use it? What does it do for the reading experience, and for the “deeper” meaning of the text (meaning, beyond plot summary)? For this paper, you will be expected to construct an argument and provide examples from the book.